THE HEART OF THE WILD WEEK TOUR

The Wild Week Tour is a short, intense and authentic immersion in the truest Mozambique.

A journey designed for those who have little time but want to experience something truly memorable: an encounter with a community, a pristine bay, and an African rhythm that changes the way you look at things.

For four nights you will enter the heart of the WildPath Project, in Moronga:

A simple, authentic place, far from mass tourism, where life still flows according to the tides, the work of the fishermen, the spirituality of the village and the strength of the group. Here you won't be a spectator: you will become part of everyday life, in a natural and spontaneous way.

You'll hike among medicinal plants alongside traditional knowledge keepers, snorkel in a seahorse habitat with our local co-guides, learn about the lives of fishermen, and participate in community activities and small projects that shape the WildPath.

It is an experience made up of people, gestures, stories, land, sea, nature.

An authentic taste of an Africa that cannot be found in catalogues, but only in human relationships.

After these intense days, the journey opens up to the lightness of Vilanculos:

Three nights of sea, white sand, and slow living, where you can relax, breathe, watch the sunset, explore the bay, and experience the daily life of a welcoming and sunny coastal town.

It's the lightest part of the trip, designed to help you find balance after the cultural immersion.

The Wild Week Tour is ideal for those who:

- wants to live a sustainable, true, human experience;
- wants to discover African culture without being distorted;
- seek simple but profound emotions;

He wants to take home a memory that speaks of people, of encounters, of authenticity.

A short but full journey.

A light, but intense experience.

A direct contact with an Africa that cannot be forgotten.

A small but great journey into the heart of Mozambique.

BE WILD BE DIFFERENT.
