THE HEART OF SOLIDARITY WEEK

The WildPath Solidarity Week was born with a clear goal: to offer as many people as possible the opportunity to experience an authentic Africa, between the ocean, communities, and real conservation and development projects.

For seven nights, you'll live in Moronga, a simple and authentic village where time follows the tides, fishing, spirituality, and the daily life of the community. It's a genuine, unfiltered immersion that allows you to experience the real Africa through the people who live it every day.

This week is designed to introduce you to the WildPath Project: the protected bay, the seahorses, the turtles, the mangroves, the vegetable gardens, the school, the cultural activities, and traditional spirituality. You'll participate in the activities, learn, and at the same time, give back.

a contribution of presence and listening.

It's also a gesture of transparency. We want our followers to be able to see what we do, how we work, and what projects we're working on. That's why we've chosen a special price, accessible to everyone, so everyone can enjoy this experience.

regardless of the rest of the trip.

Those who wish can then add the sea, safari, or other experiences, but this week is a complete journey: simple, human, and profound.

Solidarity Week is ideal for those who want to experience life in an African village, understand conservation and community projects, have a powerful cultural experience, and approach Africa in an ethical and conscious way.

A week that opens, that brings closer, that remains.

WE ARE WAITING FOR YOU.
BE WILD BE DIFFERENT.
